The Grand Jury charges that:

INTRODUCTION

1. During times material to this Indictment, within the Eastern District of North Carolina and elsewhere, TENDAI MUNYARADZI MAKONI, MALAMIN OUSMAN SONKO, MARK TONY EVANS, MOMAR TALLA NDIR, SALIFU JALLOW, PA AMBROSE MENDY, ABDOULAIE FRANCIS LOWE NICOLAS, DABED DEL JESUS SANCHEZ, JOSEPH DAREN HOLCOMB,

AARON KENT DAVIS, DEFENDANTS herein, and other conspirators, known and unknown to the grand jury, engaged in a scheme to possess, use, and traffic in stolen credit and debit card account numbers, and counterfeit access devices. These same individuals further conspired to launder the proceeds of these crimes by purchasing large quantities of cigarettes for later resale.

2. To carry out the scheme, a member of the conspiracy acquired stolen credit or debit card account information, hereinafter collectively referred to as "Stolen Accounts". The Stolen Accounts belonged to individuals located across the United States and abroad. The Stolen Accounts were also maintained by banks located across the United States and abroad.

3. A member of the conspiracy encoded information from the Stolen Accounts onto the magnetic strips of plastic credit or gift cards in a manner that altered them from their original form at the time they were manufactured by the issuer. These altered or re-encoded cards are referred to herein as "Counterfeit Cards."

4. After acquiring a number of Counterfeit Cards, a member of the conspiracy traveled to a number of Walmart stores located in the Eastern District of North Carolina and elsewhere. In some instances, multiple members of the conspiracy traveled together to the same Walmart.

5. While at the Walmart stores, a member of the conspiracy purchased numerous Walmart gift cards using the Counterfeit Cards to fund such purchase. By swiping the Counterfeit Cards, Walmart's card processing systems interacted with banks and transaction intermediaries with custody over the Stolen Accounts in various states via interstate wire transmissions, and thereby affected interstate commerce. The conspirators frequently purchased several, genuine Walmart gift cards using the Stolen Accounts encoded in the Counterfeit Cards to fund such purchase.

6. After acquiring a number of gift cards, a member of the conspiracy took the genuine gift cards to one of numerous Sam's Club stores located in the Eastern District of North Carolina and elsewhere. In some instances, multiple members of the conspiracy traveled together to the same Sam's Club.

7. While at the Sam's Club, a member of the conspiracy purchased numerous cartons of cigarettes using the genuine gift cards. By swiping the genuine gift cards at the point of sale, Sam's Club's card processing systems interacted with the transaction intermediary for the Walmart gift cards located in Arizona via interstate wire transmissions, and thereby affected interstate commerce. The conspirators frequently spent several thousand dollars during a single cigarette purchase event.

8. After purchasing a large quantity of cigarettes, member of the conspiracy sold the cigarettes to a vendor in exchange for payment.
